

INTERFRATERNITY COUNCIL AT CLEMSON UNIVERSITY
CONSTITUTION and BY-LAWS

MISSION

The mission of the Interfraternity Council at Clemson University is to govern, serve, represent, and promote, with the highest standard of integrity, its member fraternities. We exist as a resource to facilitate the growth and development of fraternity men in the areas of personal and fraternal responsibility, leadership, scholastic achievement, civic engagement, and brotherhood.

ARTICLE I – NAME

This organization shall be known as the Interfraternity Council (IFC) at Clemson University.

ARTICLE II – PURPOSE OF THE IFC

Section I.

The Interfraternity Council at Clemson University shall be the governing body for all member fraternities recognized by their respective inter/national organizations and Clemson University.

Section II.

- A. The specific purpose of the Interfraternity Council of Clemson University shall be:
- a. The establishment and administration of rules governing joining, associate membership, and initiation;
 - b. The establishment and administration of rules governing the general conduct of fraternities;
 - c. The encouragement of scholastic achievement;
 - d. The general promotion of Fraternity and Sorority Life;
 - e. The stimulation of greater cooperation and harmony among the members of the Interfraternity Council at Clemson University and the Fraternity and Sorority Life community as a whole; and,
 - f. The promotion of the mission of Clemson University.

ARTICLE III – IFC MEMBERSHIP

Section I. Membership Eligibility

Membership in the IFC is open to social fraternity chapters and recognized associate chapters (formerly known as “colonies”) at Clemson University that are recognized by their respective Inter/National Headquarters. The levels of membership are defined as Associate and Full Members.

- a. Per Clemson University policy, local organizations not supported by an Inter/National Headquarters may not receive membership status in the Interfraternity Council.
 - b. All members (Associate and Full) are expected to comply with all policies set forth by the Interfraternity Council at Clemson University and Clemson University.
- A. Full Membership
- a. All chartered chapters will be granted full membership status.
 - b. Full membership status includes full voting rights on all IFC matters and the ability to run for all positions on the IFC Executive Board.
- B. Associate Membership
- a. Associate Member status is reserved for associate chapters (formerly known as colonies) that have not yet received chartered chapter status.
 - b. Associate Chapters must be registered student organizations through Clemson University as well as recognized by an Inter/National Organization.
 - c. Associate Membership will be granted voting privileges and have the ability to run for the roles of Director of Recruitment, Director of Finance, Director of Membership Development, Director of Philanthropy and Service, and Director of Public Relations on the IFC Executive Board.

- d. Associate Member chapters are not eligible for positions of President, Executive Vice President, and Vice President of Risk Management.
 - e. Associate Member Chapters are expected to receive their charters within two years and become full members of the Interfraternity Council unless proper documentation is submitted by the Inter/National Organization to ensure the associate chapter (formerly known as colony) is making proper steps to receiving their charter. Failure to do so may result in a revocation of IFC membership and privileges.
 - f. For chapters who are seeking re-recognition, and were suspended or had their charter revoked, the IFC Executive Council and the IFC Honor Court reserves the right to add reasonable metrics in order to promote a successful return to campus and the Fraternity and Sorority community.
- C. The IFC will not recognize associate chapters/chapters that are currently suspended or have their charter revoked by their Inter/National Organization.
- D. In order to sustain IFC recognition, associate member chapters and full member chapters must become a registered student organization within the Clemson University organization registration process each time re-registration is required (typically hosted through late fall/early spring).

Section II. Member Chapter Minimum Expectations

Each member chapter shall adhere to and abide by the following minimum expectations:

- A. Each member chapter shall comply with all policies set forth by:
 - 1. The IFC Constitution, Bylaws, executive orders, and other guidelines; and
 - 2. The Clemson University Student Handbook, Code of Conduct, and Student Organization Agreement.
- B. Each member chapter shall maintain a minimum chapter GPA of 2.70 per semester and a minimum new member class GPA of 2.70.
- C. Each member chapter shall be current on all IFC dues owed.
- D. Each member chapter shall participate in the majority of initiatives and events set forth by the Interfraternity Council. Unless otherwise designated, the expected attendance rate is 80% per chapter (this includes programs sponsored by the office of Fraternity and Sorority Life).
- E. Each member chapter shall be required to maintain accurate rosters through the Office of Fraternity and Sorority Life.
- F. Each member chapter shall comply with the attendance policies for the IFC General Body and the IFC Honor Court, as outlined within the Constitution and Bylaws of the Interfraternity Council.
- G. A member chapter which has failed to meet any of the minimum expectations outlined in this Section shall be referred to the IFC Executive Vice President, and settled in IFC Honor Court.

Section III. Revocation

Membership in the Interfraternity Council at Clemson University is at all times a privilege, which may be withdrawn by a two-thirds (2/3) affirmative vote of the Interfraternity Council chapter representatives.

Section IV. Membership Status for Member Chapters

The membership status of member chapters shall be as follows:

- A. Good Standing: A member chapter shall be deemed to be in good standing if the member chapter is currently operating under the requirements set by the IFC Constitution and Bylaws, and is currently meeting the minimum expectations outlined in Section II of this Article.
- B. Not in Good Standing: A member chapter shall be deemed to be not in good standing if the member chapter has been placed under probation by the IFC, Clemson University, and/or their Inter/National Organization or the chapter has currently failed to meet the minimum expectations outlined in Section II of this Article.

Member chapters that are deemed not in good standing may have restrictions on their operations and privileges in accordance with IFC and Clemson University policy.

- C. Cease and Desist: Member chapters under a cease and desist/suspension order (including temporary) from Clemson University and/or their Inter/National Organization will not have any privileges afforded to a member chapter of IFC at Clemson University.

Section V. Individual Member Definitions

For the purpose of this Constitution and Bylaws, and with the understanding that each member chapter may have its own terminology for internal use, individuals will be defined as follows:

- A. Initiated Member: An Initiated Member shall be defined as any man who has been initiated into any fraternity at Clemson University.
 - a. Once initiated as a member of an Inter/National fraternity, an individual is prohibited from joining another Inter/National fraternity regardless of institution unless the Inter/National fraternity/fraternities involved allow for such opportunity. This varies by organization and cannot be enforced or required by the council.
- B. New Member: A New Member shall be defined as any man who has accepted a bid to join a fraternity at Clemson University, but has not been initiated into said fraternity.
- C. Potential New Member: A Potential New Member shall be defined as any man who is a student at Clemson University and has not accepted a bid from any fraternity.

ARTICLE IV – IFC GENERAL BODY

Section I. IFC General Body

- A. The powers of the IFC shall be vested in the IFC General Body. The IFC General Body consists of a representative from each member chapter and shall be the governing legislative body responsible for the general policies of the IFC, for electing its Executive Board, and for instructing its Executive Board as to the activities and operations of the IFC. All such activities shall respect the individual sovereignty and associational rights of each member chapter and shall not relinquish any governance authority to any other governing body.

Section II. IFC Representatives

Each member chapter shall have one IFC Representative, its president, who serves on the IFC General Body and is granted full voting privileges. A member of the IFC Executive Board is not permitted to serve in the capacity of a chapter's IFC Representative.

Section IV. IFC Alternate Representatives

Each member chapter may also choose an IFC Alternate Representative, any member of the chapter's executive council, who shall represent that member chapter in the IFC General Body in the absence of its president.

Section VI. Term of Office of IFC Representatives

Individuals who serve as IFC Representatives shall remain in that position until they are replaced by their member chapter or until they are elected or appointed to serve on the IFC Executive Board.

Section VII. IFC General Body Meeting Policies

The IFC General Body shall conduct its meetings according to the following requirements:

- A. The most recent edition of Robert's Rules of Order shall be used to run all meetings.
- B. The presence of two-thirds ($\frac{2}{3}$) of total member chapters shall constitute a quorum in order to conduct IFC General Body business.
- C. The IFC General Body shall conduct regularly scheduled business meetings at least twice a month during the academic year.
- D. Special meetings may be called by the IFC President at any time or at the request of two member chapters, with notice of the time, location, and purpose of the special meeting provided to all member chapters.

- E. Each member chapter's IFC Representative or Alternate Representative is required to attend all meetings of the IFC. More than two absences per academic semester shall result in the member chapter being referred to the IFC Executive Vice President for an informal judicial review.

Section VIII. IFC General Body Voting Policies

The IFC General Body shall operate utilizing the following voting policies:

- A. Each member chapter, in good standing, shall have one vote.
- B. Individuals holding IFC Executive Board positions are entitled to one vote per position with the exception of IFC President.
- C. In the event of a tie, the IFC President shall cast the deciding vote.
- D. With the exception of the election of IFC Executive Board positions, there shall be no secret ballot votes.

ARTICLE V – IFC EXECUTIVE BOARD

Section I. IFC Executive Board

The IFC Executive Board shall be responsible for carrying out the purpose and policies of the IFC and for its day-to-day operations and activities, as directed by the IFC General Body.

Section II. IFC Executive Board Composition

The officers of the Executive Board shall be President, Executive Vice President, Vice President of Risk Management, Director of Recruitment, Director of Finance, Director of Membership Development, Director of Philanthropy and Service, and Director of Public Relations.

Section III. Requirements

- A. The roles of President, Executive Vice President, and Vice President of Risk Management may not be filled by members from the same chapter. However, chapters represented in these aforementioned roles are permitted to have one member serve as a Director on the Interfraternity Executive Board (Director of Recruitment, Director of Finance, Director of Membership Development, Director of Philanthropy and Service, and Director of Public Relations.)
- B. An individual must be in good standing with Clemson University and be an initiated member in good standing with the chapter they are affiliated with.
- C. Individuals must have at least a 2.70 cumulative Clemson University GPA.
- D. The IFC President must also have served on the IFC Executive Board or as chapter president for at least one semester.
- E. The IFC Executive Vice President must also have served on the IFC Executive Board, as chapter president, on their chapter executive board, or IFC Honor Court for at least one semester.

Section IV. Election Policies

- A. The officers of the Executive Board shall be elected from the voting membership in November of each year.
- B. A simple majority vote of all voting members shall be required to elect a member of the Interfraternity Council to an office, assuming that quorum is met for the vote to occur.
- C. The IFC Executive Board shall operate utilizing the following voting policies during IFC Executive Board elections:
 - a. Each IFC Executive Board member shall have one vote unless they are a nominee for the position in question.
 - b. The IFC President should refrain from casting his vote except in the event of a tie. In such instances, the IFC President shall cast the deciding vote.

Section V. IFC Executive Board Meeting Policies

The IFC Executive Board shall conduct its meetings according to the following requirements:

A. The most recent edition of Robert's Rules of Order shall be used to run all meetings.

B. A majority of IFC Executive Board members present shall constitute a quorum in order to conduct IFC Executive Board business.

C. The IFC Executive Board shall conduct regularly scheduled meetings on a weekly/bi-weekly basis. D. Special meetings may be called by the IFC President with notice of the time, location, and purpose of the special meeting provided to each IFC Executive Board member.

E. Each IFC Executive Board member is required to attend all meetings of the IFC Executive Board and all meetings of the IFC General Body. Excessive absences may result in removal from office and/or loss of officer stipend.

Section VI. IFC Executive Board Officer Removal and Special Cases

The following policies and procedures shall be utilized for the removal and replacement of an IFC Executive Board officer(s):

A. Any individual serving in an IFC Executive Board position may be removed from his position by a two-thirds ($\frac{2}{3}$) affirmative vote of the IFC General Body.

B. In the event of a vacancy in any IFC Executive Board position, the IFC President shall appoint a successor to complete the term under the advice and consent of the remaining members of the IFC Executive Board and the IFC Advisor(s).

C. Should a vacancy occur in the office of the IFC President, a special election shall be held within two (2) weeks after the vacancy was created. The IFC Executive Vice President will preside over this election. D. In the event that any fraternity chapter is suspended or expelled from membership or loses recognition from the University while one of its representatives is holding office on the Executive Council, such office shall be filled as outlined in section B or C.

E. If an executive officer fails to maintain a 2.70 cumulative GPA, their position will be deemed vacant and filled as outlined in Section B or C.

Section VII. Report of IFC Officers

A report of any newly elected or appointed IFC Executive Board officers shall be submitted to the NIC by the IFC Advisor(s) within one week of the election or appointment.

ARTICLE VI – IFC HONOR COURT

Section I. IFC Honor Court Jurisdiction, Composition, and Eligibility

See policy entitled IFC Honor Court Guidelines and Proceedings

ARTICLE VII - SOCIAL PROCEDURES

See policy Interfraternity Council at Clemson University Social Procedures

ARTICLE VIII – CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENTS

Section I. Constitutional Amendments

This Constitution may be amended by a two-thirds ($\frac{2}{3}$) affirmative vote of the IFC General Body provided notice of the proposed amendment has been provided to member chapters at the preceding business meeting of the IFC General Body or with at least seven (7) days notice.

Section II. Adoption

This Constitution shall become effective and shall supersede all previous Constitutions of the IFC when adopted by a two-thirds (2/3) affirmative vote of the IFC General Body.

E. The total number of chapters and colonies opened and closed during each academic year. F. The total number of full-time professionals employed at Clemson University who work directly within fraternity and sorority life, during each academic year.

ARTICLE IV – FINANCIAL MANAGEMENT POLICY

Section I. Fiscal Year

The IFC fiscal year shall run from January 1st to December 31st.

Section II. IFC Semester Budget

The Director of Finance shall propose a semester budget to the IFC Executive Board by the last meeting of the previous semester. Upon adoption by the IFC Executive Board, the budget shall be presented to the IFC General Body for ratification.

Section IV. Appropriate Use of IFC Funds

IFC funds are under the jurisdiction of the IFC member chapters and shall only be used in a manner that benefits the fraternity community and that is congruent with the values of fraternity life. IFC funds shall not be used to purchase alcoholic beverages.

Section VII. Signature Requirements for Financial Accounts and Transactions

The signature of the IFC President or the IFC Director of Finance shall be required on all IFC financial accounts and transactions.

Section VIII. Financial Reporting

The IFC Director of Finance shall provide a financial report to the IFC General Body on a monthly basis including all income and expenses during the given period of time and in relation to the overall budget for each line item.

Section IX. Financial Record Keeping

The IFC Director of Finance shall maintain accurate and organized financial records consisting of all receipts and invoices, copies of all monetary disbursements and deposits, IFC financial forms and reports, actual dues levied, canceled checks, ledgers, and journals.

ARTICLE V – MEMBER CHAPTER FINANCIAL OBLIGATIONS

Section I. Establishment of IFC Member Chapter Dues

Any proposed amendments to the established per initiated member dues in Section I of this Article shall be initiated utilizing the following protocol:

- A. If the IFC Executive Board determines a need to amend the established per initiated member dues amount, it shall charge the IFC Director of Finance with assessing the current dues amount and providing a recommendation for possible amendments.
- B. A two-thirds ($\frac{2}{3}$) vote of the IFC General Body is required to amend the IFC member chapter dues amount.

Section II. IFC Member Chapter Dues

The annual dues for each member chapter shall be $20 per initiated member per year, paid at a rate of $10 per member per semester. Associate member chapters will not be charged until after their first semester of membership in the council.

- A. Dues shall be charged at the beginning of each semester of each fiscal year, based on previous semester's membership totals. Each chapter will receive an invoice after the first general body meeting of the fiscal

- year. Payment of the invoice will be due within thirty (30) days following the receipt of said invoice.
- B. Chapter new members are not to be included in the chapter total for the purpose of dues collection during the semester they are new members.

Section III. Delinquent Payments

Any amount unpaid by the due date, without communicating with the IFC Director of Finance, shall result in a 10% penalty and loss of social privilege as an IFC member chapter until payment has been made. Any amount unpaid within one month of the due date shall result in the member chapter being referred to the IFC Executive Vice President and IFC Honor Court for possible judicial action.

ARTICLE VI – IFC HONOR COURT PROCEDURES

See Honor Court Guidelines and Proceedings for IFC Honor Court Procedures.

ARTICLE VII – RUSH PROCESSES

Section I. Formal Rush

Formal Rush shall be held one week per semester designated by the Interfraternity Council of Clemson University.

- A. There is no requirement for a chapter to participate in Formal Rush.
- B. All incoming new males currently enrolled at Clemson University are eligible to participate in Formal Rush.
- C. All continuing undergraduate males currently enrolled at Clemson University with a minimum 2.70 cumulative GPA are eligible to participate in Formal Rush.
- D. Eligibility of all potential new members is contingent upon successful completion of any Pre-Rush education requirements set forth by the Interfraternity Council and the Office of Fraternity and Sorority Life.

- E. No fraternity shall serve alcohol or allow alcohol to be present during the week of Formal Rush or any Rush event.
- F. Each member chapter must follow IFC and Clemson University guidelines for the IFC Rush process. These guidelines will be presented to member chapters each semester by the Director of Recruitment.

Section II. Open Rush

- A. Open Rush shall begin following the close of Formal Rush for that semester and shall end following the conclusion of said semester.
- B. The same requirements for formal rush apply to Open Rush.
- C. A fraternity chapter may not extend an open bid to a rushee during the Formal Rush period. There is no requirement for a chapter to participate in Open Rush.
- D. Member chapters are permitted to recruit year-round. However, member chapters may not extend bids to potential new members once the University initiation deadline has passed each semester. Member chapters must wait until the conclusion of the next formal rush process before it can resume extending open bids.
- E. Each member chapter wishing to extend open bids must follow IFC and Clemson University guidelines for doing so. These guidelines will be presented to member chapters each semester by the Director of Recruitment.

Article VIII - New Member Policies

Section I.

- A. New Members become recognized affiliates of their chapters following the signing of the membership card with the Office of Fraternity and Sorority Life. Member chapters recognize that it is their responsibility to make sure their new members complete this obligation. Failure to do so may result in a new member losing their recognition or the member chapter being summoned to Honor Court for interfering with university policy.
- B. The Office of Fraternity and Sorority Life will contact all parents of new members to inform them of the hazing policies, warning signs, and reporting procedures.
- C. New Member Education cannot exceed eight (8) weeks from the time formal recruitment ends. This date will be set in advance and chapters will know prior to the start of formal recruitment.
 - a. The eight (8) week time limit is rigid and does not restart for men who accept bids during the open bid process.
 - i. If a chapter has a new member initiation timeline of less than 8 weeks per their National Headquarters, they are expected to follow that and failure to do so will result in violation of new member policies.
 - b. All member chapters completing a new member process will submit their new member plans to the Executive Vice-President of the Interfraternity Council prior to the start of the process. Failure to do so will result in the IFC Honor Court prohibiting the start of the new member process until the plan is submitted.
 - c. All member chapters are required to submit any new members that withdraw from the new member process within 48 hours of that new member notifying the member chapter.
 - d. All member chapters are required to complete a Notification of Initiation form within 48-72 hours of completing initiation. This form will contain a list of men being initiated as well as the date and time. e. Alcohol and/or illegal substances are not permitted to be present during any new member activity. D. New Members are not permitted to serve as designated drivers for the duration of their new member period. Only initiated members are permitted to serve as designated drivers if their Inter/National Organization policies permit it.
 - a. No chapter should be providing the contact information for any of their new members outside of the chapter for driving use. This will also be considered a violation of the Designated Driving policy. E. No new member activities are permitted to take place between 10:00p.m. and 7:00a.m. Sunday through Thursday unless approved in advance by the IFC Executive Board and the Office of Fraternity and Sorority Life.

- a. Additional activities not permitted to take place include all items listed in the University Hazing Policy. In addition to these examples, IFC also includes examples such as scavenger hunts, requiring new members to sleep at the house, requiring new members to serve on any “on-call” rotation, and any other concern that interferes with their academic, emotional, mental, or physical well-being.
- F. New Member activities must take place within Clemson/the surrounding area. New Members should not be required to travel more than 30 miles of campus for a chapter-organized activity unless it is a registered chapter social event or is approved by the IFC Executive Vice-President in accordance with all other new member expectations and policies.
- G. New Members are required to participate in the IFC New Member Ed Series with at least 80% (or a majority, whichever is relevant to new member class size).

Article IX – Probation and Penalties

Section I.

A member fraternity chapter placed on social probation may not host events with alcohol for the prescribed time, beginning the day on which the penalty is levied.

Section II.

Any fine levied, whether in accordance with the Constitution, Bylaws, or IFC Honor Court Proceedings shall be paid in full within two (2) weeks or work out a payment plan with the IFC Director of Finance. The chapter is placed on social probation from the time they receive the invoice until the fine is paid in full. Failure to pay the fine within the prescribed fourteen (14) days shall result in the chapter being referred to the IFC Honor Court and a 10% penalty will be added to the invoice.

Section III.

If a fraternity chapter earns social probation and said probation is interrupted by the ending of a semester, the remainder of the penalty period will be served commencing the first day of classes at the beginning of the next spring or fall semester.
